FOOLISH KIDNAPING IDEA
THE 5-DAY WEEK
SUNSHINE IN WALL STREET
THE SHERMAN LAW FETTER

By Arthur Brisbane
(Copyright 1930 By King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Los Angeles reports a plot to kidnap Harry Chandler, publisher of the Los Angeles Times, the kidnapers to hold him for ransom. Several men have been arrested.

The would-be kidnapers made a foolish mistake in the selection of a victim. Such a kidnaping would mean a permanent hunt for the criminals, by newspaper men, that understand their business and would mean ultimate detection.

Paul Mazur, of the able firm of Lehman Brothers, says the five-day week should be adopted universally, to concentrate working, selling and buying in five days, giving everybody two days to spend what they earn, according to Mr. Mazur, would encourage spending and increase buying at least 20 per cent.

The slump in employment should convince the feeble-minded that keeping out immigration does not "guarantee steady work for everybody in the United States."

To guarantee steady work you need buyers for good products, and to increase the buying you must increase the purchasing population.

If this country had 50,000,000 more population of the right kind it would be 50 per cent better off in every way.

When there were only 4,000,000 people in the United States, many were idle, many were poor, many were drunken and only one mechanic in the whole country was able to earn as much as $1 a day the year round.

The greatest unemployment problem is much improved so far as it affects the deserving Wall Street brokers. For two days in succession the stock market has been cheerful. Prices "buoyant."

You may think it makes little difference whether a broker earns $1,000 or $2,000 in a day.

But, Wall Street is a barometer for prosperity. When the street is happy prosperity often follows.

Wall Street's cheerful mood came too late for Bart H. Manning, once vice president of the Union Trust company in Detroit.

Last Tuesday Manning wrote an undertaker enclosing "directions for finding my body." He was found in a swamp near the Detroit country, with a bullet near his heart, and soon died.

He is said to have lost $2,000,000 in stock speculation.

If men would buy stocks, carefully selected of sound value, as they buy real estate, within their means, every intelligent man today could lay the foundation of future independence.

But, in stocks or in real estate, if you gamble, you are gone. Any one of ten million phantasies that float around the back door of the stock exchange at midnight could tell you that.

It is time for this country to get rid of its Sherman law fetter and allow great industrial, railroad and other concerns to make combinations in the interest of economy.

Our railroads, lacking apparently the intelligence to meet automobile, motor bus and motor truck competition, are in a bad way, in

Ohio Edison Gives Up Trolley, Bus Systems

LIST PROPERTY IN TWO STATES AT $15,000,000

New Company Takes Over Control Of Transportation Rights

(By Associated Press)
AKRON, Nov. 14.—Transportation systems in over a dozen communities in eastern Ohio and western Pennsylvania today passed from control of the Ohio Edison company into the hands of the Transportation Securities company, a new holding company formed by Akron, Youngstown and New York capital. Property changing hands is valued at approximately $15,000,000.

Get Trolley, Bus Lines

The new company today took over all franchises and complete financial control and operation of the street car and bus service of the Akron Transportation company, Canton Traction company, Northern Ohio Interurban company, Cleveland-Akron-Canton Bus company, Youngstown Railway company and the Penn-Ohio Bus company, all of which have been Ohio Edison subsidiaries.

The Ohio Edison company with headquarters at Akron has relinquished all holdings in the transportation field and will devote itself exclusively to the electric and steam heating business.

Present Officers Retire

A. C. Blinn, vice president and general manager of Ohio Edison, and L. G. Tigue, vice president of Ohio Edison and manager of the Akron division, who have been officers of the four subsidiaries, have retired from these places and neither they or other present employees of the Ohio Edison company will have any connection with the transportation business.

W. H. Sammis, of New York, is president of the Transportation Securities company; P. V. C. See of Akron, is vice president and manager of the Akron division; R. N. Graham of Youngstown, is vice president and manager of the Youngstown division; J. B. Waring of Akron, is secretary and treasurer and Mrs. Mabel Miller of Akron, is auditor.

Telephone Directors

The directors of the Telephone company are: W. J. Ruoff, W. A. M. Vaughan, and E. A. Oberlin, Akron bankers, and Dan A. Scanlon, former superintendent of transportation for the Ohio Edison company.

Ohio cities in which the company operates include Akron, Youngstown, Canton, Barberton, Wadsworth, Cuyahoga Falls, Kent, Ravenna, Warren, Girard and Niles. Sharon and New Castle are among the Pennsylvania cities.

Leetonia's Mercy Drive Is Planned

LEETONIA, Nov. 14.—Leetonia's annual Red Cross roll call campaign will get under way here Sunday.

Plans for the drive were formed at the Kiwanis club's recent meeting at the Methodist parish house this week. The Kiwanians are sponsoring the campaign.

Six Boy Scouts Get Merit Badges

Members of Boy Scout Troop 1 of Salem were awarded merit badges at the court of honor held at the Memorial building Thursday.

The honored scouts are: William Westphal, Richard Carnes, Ted Stewart, Paul Layden, Carl Kermitt and Paul Bradley.

County Scout Executive C. E. Felton of Lisbon, John Keontz and Joel H. Sharp of Salem presided at the court.

Two Hurt In Crash

EAST LIVERPOOL, Nov. 14.—James Howard and Nicholas Gutilla of 1612 Hammond avenue, Canton, suffered cuts and bruises when their automobile crashed into a parked truck near the Youngstown and Ohio River railroad sub station, two miles north of here on the Youngstown-East Liverpool highway, at 6 p. m. Thursday. They were taken to the City hospital.

Mrs. Ivah Underwood In Court As Crash Aftermath

LISBON, Nov. 14.—Robert W. White, 81 West Tenth street, Salem was named defendant in a $15,000 damage suit filed in common pleas court by Mrs. Ivah Underwood, 1245 East Third street, Salem, today.

The plaintiff related in her petition that she was a passenger in the rear seat of an automobile driven by her husband on the Salem-Damascus road, several months ago, and that a machine driven by White crashed into the rear of her car as a result of which she was injured.

Roadhouse Owner Fined In Sebring

Oscar Studer, 35, of Goshen township, proprietor of a roadhouse west of Damascus on the Salem-Damascus road, was fined $500 and costs on a liquor charge in the court of Squire O. E. Brooks in Sebring Thursday.

Studer's roadhouse, opened for less than a month, was raided by Stark county deputies. The raiders reported finding a full-sized bar with beer on tap and other liquors offered for sale.

The deputies wrecked the bar, smashed more than 100 glasses and confiscated kegs of beer and bottles found in a garage in the rear of the place.

Deputy Sheriff Parker in charge of the raiding squad, stated 17 automobile loads of thirsty motorists stopped at the place while the raiders were there.

CONTRACTORS START STREET WORK SATURDAY

Asphalt To Be Used On Resurfacing Of East State Strip

GREENFORD ROAD WILL BE DETOUR

Superior Avenue Paving Under Way; Complete In Month

Work of placing asphalt on East State street by the Kelley-Meyer Construction company of Youngstown is scheduled to start Saturday. It was announced here today by city officials.

Asphalt will be placed in the east end of the city, from the old corporation lines past the city hospital to Brooklyn avenue. Traffic will be blocked in that section of the highway for four or five days.

East and west bound traffic will be detoured through Greenford during the placing of the asphalt in the far east section. As soon as the work is completed to Brooklyn avenue the road will be reopened and detours will be in effect out East Third street.

Work is also under way on paving of Superior avenue.

East State street will be resurfaced from the old corporation lines east of the hospital to the street's intersection at Lincoln avenue. An asphalt binder course with sheet asphalt top will surface the street.

Both projects will be completed in a month.

Soldiers' Relief Executive To Begin County Work Monday

Charles Marton To Handle Compensation Claims On Vets' Bureau

LISBON, Nov. 14.—Appointed by county commissioners upon recommendation of the Columbiana County Council of the American Legion, Charles Marton of East Liverpool Monday will begin his duties as soldiers' relief commissioner in the county.

His term will expire Jan. 1, 1932. The salary is $200 a month.

Marton will work throughout the county in investigating applications of veterans or their dependents for financial relief or medical treatment. He will also handle compensation claims before the United States Veterans' bureau.

County commissioners estimate that the county will be saved between $3,000 and $4,000 through the appointment of Marton. Cases of former service men, who are being cared for in tuberculosis hospitals, the county infirmary, the Massillon state hospital and other institutions at the county expense will be turned over to the commissioner in an effort to have them committed to federal institutions.

Marton will work under the direction of the county commissioners but in conjunction with the soldiers' relief commission of which he is a member. Other members of this commission are John Morrison of Lisbon, veteran of the Civil war, and James McCready of East Palestine, veteran of the Spanish-American war.

CHIEF THOMPSON CONTINUES HUNT

Salem Man Braves Bullets In Successful Get-away Attempt

Charged with having participated in a series of robberies, holdups and automobile thefts in several states, Walter Evans of Salem, recently paroled from the Ohio reformatory at Mansfield, is being sought by police authorities in eastern Ohio today.

A net was spread for Evans' capture after he had fled police bullets in a chase through streets of the city Thursday afternoon. His 21-year old bride, and his brother, Raymond, 18, also of Salem, were taken to Cleveland for questioning.

Police Get Call

A telephone call from Cleveland requesting that Salem police arrest the Evans brothers, Mrs. Evans and two other men, and hold them on charges of suspicion pending the arrival here of Cuyahoga county authorities was received at 4:15. Police Chief T. W. Thompson, Patrolmen Ralph Stoffer, William Reardon, Edward Piller and Wilbur Hiddleston immediately started search.

Evans, with his wife, was seen walking in the northwest end of the city by Thompson and Stoffer after 30 minutes' search. Thompson, dressed in civilian clothes, alighted from the police car and began walking towards the couple but gave no indication he wished to place Evans under arrest. Evans, however, recognized him and immediately turned and ran in an opposite direction, concealing himself in a swamp near Seventh street.

Fire Several Several Shots

He was later seen running in the rear of Ellsworth avenue and police, who were scouring the entire city, were notified. Patrolman Reardon fired several shots at him without result.

On a third occasion residents living in the southwest districts reported seeing a man running through rear lots and over fences and in the absence of members of the police department who were continuing their search in other directions. Firemen James Groner and Curtis Varian joined in with police but did not see Evans.

Police believed that Evans ran to the Pennsylvania railroad tracks where he may have boarded a train. The North Benton road, Route 14, was watched throughout the night by members of the force while city.

Entered at Salem Postoffice as Second Class Matter.

A MATTER OF BUSINESS

The country is dividing itself into two factions over the proposed increase in the letter mail rate from two to two and one-half cents an ounce. The opposing faction, while admitting that the postoffice department is not self-supporting, denies that it has any right to increase letter rates in an attempt to become so. It advises, rather, efficient, satisfactory service at any cost, preferring evidently to pay the deficit rather than the proposed rate increase.

The other faction, including many whose minds are not made up definitely, believes that the postoffice department should be self-supporting. Railroads adjust their passenger and freight rates to provide sufficient revenue, and the postoffice department has the right to do likewise. The principal rebuffs to this faction's claims are that the present rate for letters has been in effect almost continuously since 1883, with exceptions caused by unusual conditions, and that there is much waste in the department which might be eliminated.

Eventually, the two factions may get together on a middle ground. Certain details of fact concerning the department will assist them.

The 1929 deficit of the postoffice department was more than $80,000,000 or 11 per cent of the total expenditures. The annual average of the deficit for 1926, 1927 and 1928 was approximately $32,000,000. Postal authorities attribute the 1929 increase primarily to reductions in postcard rates, reductions in second and third class rates, and mandatory salary increases. The department has attempted to reduce expenses by skimping on deliveries and collections but such economies are not sufficient to absorb the deficit.

First class mail provided 60 per cent of the total postal revenue in 1929—$365,000,000. Assuming that the volume would remain the same, a 25 per cent increase would net something more than $90,000,000. But if the 17 billion pieces of first class mail carried in 1929 should decrease, and it has been found in the past that increase in rates in any class of mail matter decreases the amount of matter mailed in that class, there would be a different story to tell. A 20 per cent increase in revenue from first class mail would be $73,000,000; a 15 per cent increase would be $55,000,000; and a 10 per cent increase would be only $36,500,000. Moreover, against any gain would have to be set the additional expense of carrying more third class mail, for the department's figures show that only first class mail is carried at a profit.

It appears improbable, therefore, that any rate increasing action which public opinion might allow the postoffice department to take would be sufficient to overcome the annual postal deficit. A considerable weight of public opinion, in fact, seems opposed to any increase at all, but there is the possibility that it will be shifted before the matter is settled. Reorganization within the department and a change of rates might operate together to overcome the deficit bugaboo.

UTILITARIAN CHRISTMAS GIFTS.—No one ever committed himself deliberately to a policy of buying useless Christmas gifts. The shoddy knock knacks are errors of judgment, not practical jokes. The purchasers believed them to be acceptable, regardless of any suspicions the recipients might have had about their quality.

There will be useless presents this Christmas, just as there always have been. But it is believed, and by no less an authority than Eric T. King, chief of the specialties division of the department of commerce, that the trend of Christmas buying this year will be in the direction of utilitarian gifts. There will be, of course, toys for the children; in fact, trade reports show that sales of toys have been about normal in spite of slack business in many other lines. But, for the adults it is anticipated that there will be an unusual number of useful gifts—things of lasting value.

A trend of this nature will help restore confidence in that it will encourage activity in fundamental industries. For instance, if clothing is given preference over ornaments, workers in the woolen, cotton and silk industries will be aided indirectly. If merchandise of quality is given preference over shoddy merchandise where it is possible to do so the recipient of the gift will get more service and the merchant will be aided.

It is apparent however, that no trend toward utilitarian Christmas gifts can be caused by anything less than intelligence among shoppers. That intelligence, in a number of cases, depends entirely on care in selection, good taste, and a sound sense of values. It is to be hoped with eager anticipation that consciousness of the current business depression will cause such actions and qualities to be more prevalent this year than ever before.

What Others Say

REVERSALS NOTHING NEW.—Jubilant among Democratic leaders is natural. Great losses in congress, the capture of a few states normally Republican by Democratic senators or governors are hailed by them as a rebuke to the Hoover administration. They are looking ahead to 1932 and the presidential election of that year. They profess to believe that the reversals of 1930 will be augmented in another 24 months. In New York enthusiastic friends of the triumphant Roosevelt are already preparing to visit him in the White House.

But there is one thing which they neglect to take into consideration in these days of untrained festivity, and this is that political history is merely repeating itself. There is nothing new in congressional upsets after an administration has been two years in power. Garfield and Arthur experienced them. So did Harrison, Cleveland, Taft, Wilson and Harding. Hoover swept the country in 1928, carrying with him many Republicans into congress from Democratic districts. It was not to be expected that the invasions of the south could result in more than temporary occupation. Democratic gains elsewhere have come about because of business depression, unemployment, the new tariff in spots and the wet and dry issue.

The prohibition question is one that unquestionably plays havoc with both parties. There is no present indication that it will or can be lifted out of politics. But business depression and unemployment are not permanent. All the world has been suffering from them. Here in this country we are gradually getting the better of them. It is an old, old story that an administration is made to bear the political brunt of "hard times." It is perfectly senseless to place responsibility upon President Hoover, but evidently a great many people, especially in the middle west, have listened to the fiery utterances of Democratic agitators.

However, periods of depression and undue unemployment never last. Such evils run their course and cure themselves, and it is fair to presume that before another national convention comes around the country will be again traveling the highway of general prosperity. The mighty efforts of Mr. Hoover to induce the country to shake off fear and have faith in the future, coupled with finding jobs for those out of work, are meeting with hearty response. With the restoration of normal conditions a restoration to normal thought may be looked for.

Lots of things may happen before 1932. Mr. Hoover, like most presidents, has his troubles midway between presidential elections but they are by no means fatal. Counting chickens before they are hatched may be interesting as guess work, but they are never to be depended upon. When Democratic leaders now tossing their hats in the air with glee have calmed down and are ready to face the situation they may be able to remember that fact—Philadelphia Inquirer.

BUY THE GALAPAGOS

The world ends in the Galapagos, and as the sun sets over the broken hills the traveler wonders if it will ever find its way again to that strange, twisted land. It is the planet's cul de sac, and the oddities and leftovers of life have gathered on the island shores or lodged themselves among the lava plains and the wrenched, contorted slopes of the interior. Six hundred miles west of Ecuador these islands hang like torn clothes pinned up to dry on the equator. Strange beasts and birds, elsewhere unknown, inhabit them. The seas are full of giant fish.

The Galapagos should be a sanctuary for wild life, for the world has no place like them. Few men live there, but new visitors and hunters soon will leave them here. Already the giant tortoises, or galapagos, are almost gone. The flightless cormorants, the dwarf penguins, the iguanas and sea lions, tame as puppy dogs, are killed off more and more. The islands should at once be made a wild life refuge.

With this in mind the Tribune has suggested that the nation buy the islands from Ecuador, establish there a wild life sanctuary and open them to tourists and world visitors. Following this suggestion a group of wealthy men proposed to purchase in part by private funds. The islands would be given to the government for protection. In case of war between a group of major powers in the Pacific these islands will not doubt be sized by one power or another because they bear upon the Panama canal. Purchase by America will guard against all this, and although the Galapagos might become in war a casual refuge anywhere, their prime use will not be military or political. Purchase now will be for interests non-political and peaceful. The islands will attract trips and tourists and become a gate to western South America.

The suggestion, we understand, has aroused great interest and has been well received in South America, once the southern countries were assured of a non-political purpose. As a stimulus to trade and travel to the west coast of South America the purchase of the islands would be of great importance. Another Yellowstone, a strange, exotic, unworldly national park off Ecuador would bring visitors by thousands. Millions of Americans now travel to our national parks. As a wild life refuge and a volcanic park, the Galapagos would draw a great quota, too.—Chicago Tribune.

NEW YORK Day by Day by O.O. McIntyre

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—Thoughts while strolling. Who remembers when fast bicyclists were called "scorchers"? And fast ladies called "flits"? Snow white berets, Lee Gwells' blond eyebrows. That "Beauty Parlor Day Shopper" near the Ritz Tower, W. A. Brady is never without a cigar.

Idwal Jones, a San Francisco boy, who made good in the city. Japanese youths who go hatless. That Sealham suggests Chief Justice Hughes, Henry Villar, the He de France's Chesterfield Beer parlor fiddlers playing "Ach du Lieber Augustin." Cardini, the vaudeville magician, looks like Raymond Hitchcock.

Cris, when started at used to jeer. "See anything green?" Today they call you a soundso. And what became of prepared chalk ladies used to use for face powder? President Hoover is at home in newsreels with children. But fidgety with grown-ups.

The luncheon hour furor. Freshly done coiffures, orchids and artless prattle. Ted Saucier, the Waldorf press agent. New York seems becalmed between 3 and 4 in the afternoon. They always flock to good old Charlie Murray comedies. How old is Jules Gienzer?

Always a celebrity or so in Mrs. Lee's Chili Villa on West 49th street. Whatever became of Pauline, the hypnotist? Those garage touts who try to shoo you in their parking places. And hoot if you drive on. The late Walter Kingsley suggested Ziegfeld's line: "Glorifying the American Girl."

A curious knot around the hotel where Jack Diamond was shot. And they still stop to stare at the Joe Elwell residence. The Broadway wise man told people know who assassinated Rothstein. I can never remember whether it is Fannie or Fanny Hurst.

That half-finished building at West End and 72d street. And did they ever finish the opera in Mexico City? Billie Burke and daughter motoring to Hastings. Statues all gone in front of the Amelia Binham home. Who remembers barn door pants that buttoned on each side?

A mid west gentleman dropped in today upset over a three hour search for a spateasy. If I hadn't been all hung up removing a typewriter ribbon I would have taken the myopic metropolitan misfit to an oculist.

Then there is the rich old man from Oklahoma who quit New York after eight months for back yonder. "I tried to go city," he said "but calling a sofa a chaise longue is too much."

The New York theater in the manner of Mr. Coolidge. On the whole there are many shows in town. Some are good. Many are bad. We may always expect such conditions. The theater is the theater. Black is black. This season we looked for much better plays. We did not get them. Producers are producers.

It was inevitable. A syndicate is being formed to purchase the New York site of the saloon where John Masefield, England's poet laureate, was a roustabout. It will become a tea room with chintz curtains and everything.

If a Broadway actor becomes too zealous in his craving for publicity he is afflicted with "flash-light poison."

It just occurs to me if the barber across from the St. Louis Union station who took me for $4.60 for a round hair cut during the World's Fair is alive all is forgiven. I have just been host at a luncheon party at the Colony.

I was right in the middle of the romantic account of how I acquired my first job in New York—you know, Ragged Dick up from the gutter—when I chanced to peek at the right side down figures of the luncheon check. The entire room shuddered, then spun and out of the fog a voice strangely my own was trying to carry on. I don't remember how it finished. It was all he anyway. But I do know it was my first luncheon party in 15 years and my last from now on.

The Stars Say —

For Saturday, November 15. A fairly favorable state of affairs may be expected from the prevailing lunar transits, but the movement will probably be in a smooth running of things in mediocre grooves. Employment and finances may show some benefits, growth or advancement, but a peculiar or restless state of mind may have a tendency to negative these benefits.

Those whose birthday it is may expect a year of fair conditions, with employment thriving favorably and with the finances showing some increase or small expansion. But these benefits may not be appreciated by a peculiar or erratic state of mind, which will lean to the occult or mysterious.

A child born on this day may have an unusual mental outlook, leaning to the occult or the unusual. It may have a fair success in employment and reach a small competence in life.

Twenty Years Ago

(Issue of Nov. 14, 1910)

Socialists of Salem gathered Sunday afternoon to rejoice over their victory at the polls last Tuesday, a victory merely of an increased vote, and to plan for an aggressive campaign in the near future.

Twenty-five Years Ago Today—Serbia declared war against Bulgaria, alleging Bulgarian invasion of Serbian territory. Bulgaria accepted the challenge by proclamation.

The annual Thanksgiving service of the Salem churches will be held Thanksgiving morning at the Christian church, Rev. Herman Lang, pastor of the First Baptist church, will give the sermon.

The price of automobile tires is to be reduced about 15 per cent. it is reported.

L. H. Brush and Rev. O. A. Simpson left Monday morning to join four Cleveland men in a trip to Zanesville, near which city they will spend a few days hunting.

L. H. Kirkbride, Sixth street, who has been seriously ill for a week, suffered a relapse Saturday evening.

The bans for the marriage of Miss Ames Judge of Pittsburgh, and Walter W. Miller, of Salem, were published at St. Paul's church Sunday morning.

Mrs. Anna A. Richards died Tuesday evening at her home in Salina, Kan., friends here have been advised.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Allen of Canton, formerly of this city, will move back to this city. Mrs. Allen is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Morris, Rose street.

There is talk of opening a Woman's exchange in Salem, where all kinds of needlework will be sold.

C. R. Baker, Garfield avenue, who has been ill, is reported to be improving.

PARIS.—The International Congress of Public Hygiene, meeting in Paris, voted in favor of the prohibition of horns and whistles as gifts to children. The Congress decided the noises of the horns and whistles were injurious to the health, and microbes were passed about from mouth to mouth.

HEALTH

By Dr. Royal S. Copeland

"Treatment For Myxedema"

We possess several varieties of glands. Among them is the thyroid—one of the "ductless" group which have a decided effect upon growth, health and the general well-being of the body.

All of us are familiar with the appearance of the person who has an enlargement of the thyroid gland. It is the condition known as "goitre." In such a case there is swelling of the neck and often certain nervous symptoms. But today I wish to speak about the opposite condition. I want to tell you what happens when there has been removal or destruction of the gland.

The absence of the usual secretions of the thyroid gland causes an unpleasant condition known as "myxedema." The patient suffering from myxedema presents a characteristic appearance. The face is somewhat swollen and the skin is usually dry and rough as there is little perspiration. The hair is harsh and falls out readily.

Myxedema may result from disease and withering of the thyroid gland or it may follow the removal of the gland. It has also been thought to be the result of worry or sudden nervous shock. Women seem to be somewhat more susceptible to myxedema than men.

"Cretenism" is a similar condition found children. It is due to congenital absence of the thyroid gland, or to disease in very early life, causing withering of the gland.

Since absence of the thyroid secretion is responsible for the symptoms, the natural treatment is the administration of extracts made from the thyroid glands of animals. But under no circumstances should this powerful remedy be given except under the physician's supervision. He and only he is in a position to determine whether such medication is called for and if it is, what dosage is best.

I have told you about myxedema for your general information and because there is, today, such widespread interest in these mysterious but all-powerful glands of ours. We should know about them and the ills to which they are heir.

In the treatment of myxedema—which is a serious ailment—there are certain measures which are worth bearing in mind. For instance, a warm climate or artificial warmth will keep the patient more comfortable. Hot applications to the neck and massage will help to stimulate the gland.

Good Reader, Q.—What causes a cracking in the arm?

2.—Would omitting breakfast help one to reduce?

3.—Are tomatoes, lean meats, potatoes or coffee particularly fattening?

A.—Probably due to a lack of synovial fluid around the joint. Massage and heat should give relief. Be sure there is no rheumatic tendency.

2.—It may, but it would be wise to eat three meals daily, restricting the sweets and starches and keeping the system in proper working order.

3.—Potatoes are fattening, but the other foods eaten or taken in moderation should not add to the weight.

Miss H. E. G. Q.—What can be done for superfluous hair?

2.—What causes a yellow complexion?

A.—For full particulars send a self-addressed, stamped envelope and repeat your question.

2.—This is indicative of a sluggish liver and faulty elimination. Correct the diet and be sure to take plenty of outdoor exercise.

Anne dear:

Here's the snap I promised you of Bill and me at the game. Of course it doesn't register our joy when our team made that winning touchdown. Neither can it show how proud I was of Bill in his new Michaels-Stern overcoat. He looked like a million dollars in it — and he said he was as warm as toast in spite of the cold.

Isn't it a shame that Michaels-Stern don't have that wonderful stylist, Lord Rochester, design some coats for co-eds? I paid about three times as much for my coat as Bill did for his — and it isn't a bit smarter — nor half as comfortable.

Try to be at the next game. I want you to meet Bill. Lotsa love,

Peggy

JOLLY JOKERS CLUB

Five hundred was a favorite pastime at a meeting of the Jolly Jokers Card club Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Burrier, Wilson street. Three tables were employed at the games. Prizes were captured by Mrs. Robert Webb of Sebring and B. D. Kelley, Mrs. Burrier and John N. Davidson of Salem. Lunch was served.

In two weeks the members will meet with Mr. and Mrs. Webb at Sebring.

W. B. A. MEETS

One application for membership was accepted at a meeting of the Women's Benefit association Thursday evening at the hall, North Broadway.

Plans were made for the district rally, which will be held November 24, at Alliance. There will be an afternoon and evening session and the Salem delegation will leave on the 1:30 car.

The next meeting will be on November 28, instead of November 27, owing to Thanksgiving coming on that date.

FRIENDSHIP SOCIETY

The Friendship society had its annual dinner Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Myra Woodruff, Goshen avenue.

Places were arranged for 16 guests from Salem, Alliance, Damascus and Sebring.

Vernon Dalzell, of Alliance, was chosen president for the ensuing year. W. H. Ferguson, of Salem, is vice president. Mrs. George Miser, of Salem, and Edward Watkins, of Sebring, are secretary and treasurer, respectively. Games helped make the occasion enjoyable.

OHIO BELLES CLUB

With coffee the main diversion, members of the Ohio Belles held a meeting Thursday evening at the home of Miss Helen Kozitz, Tenth street. Prizes were awarded Misses Mae Buraw and Jeanette Hoch. Lunch was served.

Miss Kate Flick and Mrs. Edna Trotter were guests of the club. On November 26, the members will go to Canton to be guests of Mrs. Fred Yoder, formerly of Salem.

LUCKY EIGHT CLUB

Meeting Thursday evening with Mrs. Elbert Boughton, of the Ellsworth road, members of the Lucky Eight club spent the time playing 500. Two tables were in play. Prizes were received by Mrs. Carl Sommers and Mrs. E. P. Crawford. Lunch was served after the games.

In two weeks the members will meet with Mrs. Sommers at her home, Franklin street.

MISS BUTLER TO WED

Mrs. V. L. Battin has returned from New Philadelphia, where she attended a party given by Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Butler, at which announcement was made of the coming marriage of their daughter, Miss Doris Butler, to John Latto, of Uhrichsville. Their wedding will be an event of November 26. Miss Butler is well known in Salem.

GOODWILL CLUB

Entertaining at a luncheon Thursday, Mrs. W. H. Weekley, of Ohio avenue, had members of the Goodwill club for her guests. Fancywork was a diversion of the afternoon.

The December meeting will be with Mrs. M. L. Graft, Ohio avenue, with a Christmas box a feature.

MARTHA WASHINGTON CLUB

Mrs. Louis Grisev was included in the guest list when members of the Martha Washington club met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. W. L. Falls, North Union avenue. Prizes at cards went to Mrs. Charles Baker and Mrs. Andrew Arnold. Lunch was served. In four weeks the members will be guests of Mrs. Leonard Crossley, North Union avenue.

HELPING HAND CLASS

Guessing contests and readings composed the program of entertainment at a meeting of the Helping Hand class of the Methodist Episcopal church Thursday afternoon at the church. Rev. C. L. Culp, teacher of the class, who was a guest, gave a talk. Refreshments were served.

MRS. ASTRY HOSTESS

Miss Minnie Korp and Mrs. Ray Wilkins won prizes in the bridge games when Mrs. Paul Astry welcomed club associates to her home on East Fourth street, Thursday evening. The hostess served lunch. On Dec. 4 the members will meet with Miss Korp, East Third street.

INVITED TO YOUNGSTOWN

The Salem branch of the Ladies' Catholic Benefit association is invited to a meeting of the Central council of the association, which will be held at 3 p. m. Sunday in the Immaculate Conception parish hall Oak street, Youngstown.

FRIDAY NIGHT CLUB

Two tables of bridge entertained when Friday Night club associates were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kaufman, West State street, last evening at their home. Mrs. Kaufman served lunch. In two weeks the members will meet again.

VICTORY DANCE

Ray Bartholomew's orchestra will play for the Victory dance which will be held tonight at Memorial building after the football game.

Misses Frances McKee, Mary Barrett and Goldie Strawn, of Cleveland, will spend the week-end with Miss McKee's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McKee, North Union avenue.

HOME CIRCLE

Mrs. C. D. Arner was elected president of the Home circle at a meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. M. G. Huffman, south of Greenford. Mrs. Richard Linsmore is vice president, and Miss Carrie Huffman, secretary. The committees are: Social, Mrs. Theodore Sulist; Mrs. Oliver Bush; Mrs. Perry Cook; Mrs. Raymond Lamb and Mrs. Jerry Kenig; flower, Mrs. Sidney Bennett; Mrs. Foster Reed and Mrs. Hubert Bradley.

Contests were diversions. Lunch was served. Mrs. Jerry Kendig, south of Greenford, will be hostess at the December meeting.

KING'S DAUGHTERS CLASS

Members of the King's Daughters class of the Baptist church met Thursday afternoon at the church.

The hostesses, Mrs. William Patterson, Mrs. H. B. Morris, Mrs. Earl Allen and Mrs. Frank Davidson served lunch.

Plans of interest to the class were discussed. The members will have a Christmas box at the December meeting.

FRIENDSHIP CLASS

The Friendship class of the First Friends church held a meeting Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Eberstine, at Damascus. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. Jule Pickett, East State street, left Friday for New York City, from where she will sail on the S. S. Braman for Germany to spend the winter with her mother.

WIFE, BROTHER ARE QUESTIONED

Duet Is Held On Suspicion By Authorities In Cleveland

ies throughout the state were notified to be on the lookout for the man.

Raymond Evans Naibed Thompson took Evans' wife to city hall where she was held until the arrival of Cleveland detectives.

Raymond Evans was arrested by Patrolman Steffer after a two-mile automobile chase on the Goshen road. Steffer forcing the youth to stop at the point of a revolver. A .38-calibre pistol was found in the youth's automobile and he was returned to the city and lodged in jail.

Lieutenant Harry Weiss of the Cleveland detective forces, accompanied by Detectives William Austin and Frank Bitterman, arrived here about 9 p. m. and questioned Evans for more than an hour. It was revealed in the questioning that the two brothers, accompanied by Mrs. Evans and another man, had just completed a trip to Florida, visiting various states in the south and southwest.

Believe Auto Was Stolen The automobile in which Evans was captured is believed by police to have been a stolen car, the license having been issued here for a roadster, 1926 model, while the machine was a 1929 coupe. The Evans brothers are also alleged to have participated in the theft of an automobile in Cleveland a month ago.

No definite charges were filed against Mrs. Evans or her brother-in-law. The latter denied all connections with various crimes which Cleveland authorities alleged that he had been involved in.

Lieutenant Weiss told Salem police that they will be held in Cleveland on charges of suspicion pending the outcome of the search for Walter Evans. Information upon which the Cleveland detectives based their charges against the trio was furnished them by Detroit, Mich. authorities, they said.

Implicated Evans Brothers A man was arrested in Detroit Tuesday on a robbery charge, Weiss told Thompson. On being questioned he is reported to have implicated the Evans brothers. Mrs. Evans and two other men who, it is believed, had been in Salem or vicinity during the last 36 hours.

Police of Muskogee, Okla., wired Cleveland authorities today that they believed the trio were wanted there on charges of burglary and assault with intent to kill. Thompson was continuing the city-wide hunt for Evans this morning. Automobiles leaving the city were stopped on various roads near here in the search.

Auto Upset Fatal

DAYTON, Nov. 14.—Mrs. Rose Delker, 60, died today of injuries received yesterday when the automobile driven by her husband, John Delker, upset. In the accident Alfred Gulick, 14, and Wilson Cook, school youths, who were walking along the highway, were struck by the machine. Gulick is believed to be suffering from a broken back.

Wilson Aid Dies

ST. MARY'S Nov. 14.—Daniel F. Mooney, 65, United States minister to Paraguay during the administration of the late President Wilson, died suddenly at his home here late last night. Mooney was a former member of the Ohio senate. He is survived by a widow, Mrs. Carrie Steinemann Mooney, three brothers and one sister.

WIDOW'S SLAYER SPIRITED FROM HIS JAIL CELL

Bellefontaine Police Take Steps To Thwart Mob Violence

(By United Press)
BELLEFONTAINE, Nov. 14.—Fearing mob violence, county authorities early today spirited Arthur Hamilton, 41, confessed slayer of Mrs. Catherine Bell, widow of Rev. Davis Bell, from the county jail.

It was not learned where the accused junk dealer was taken and county authorities refused to divulge his whereabouts. He has been formally charged with murder.

Hamilton broke down after 48 hours of questioning and confessed attacking the aged woman whose body was found on a lonely road several miles from her home at Quincy.

Hamilton is married and the father of two children. Feeding was at high pitch here and at Quincy last night and early today and Hamilton was spirited away for safekeeping.

DEATHS

S. P. CORNELL
S. P. Cornell, of Los Angeles, Cal., formerly of Salem, died recently at his home there. Relatives here have been advised. Mr. Cornell had been in failing health for the last two years.

Mr. Cornell had spent the greater part of his life in Salem and while here was associated with the Deming company. Prior to his illness he was employed as clerk of the license department in the municipal building at Los Angeles.

He is survived by his widow; one daughter, Mrs. Clyde Reich, of Salem; one brother, J. Alton Cornell, and one sister, Mrs. Martha Cook, Salem.

Funeral service will be held Saturday afternoon in Los Angeles.

HANNAH SATTERTHWAITE
Miss Hannah Satterthwaite, 71, died at 12:30 a. m. Friday at her home, Depot road, following a long illness.

Miss Satterthwaite was born in the home where she died, having been a life long resident of Salem. She was a birthright member of the Wilbur Society of Friends.

She is survived by two brothers, Edgar and Howard of Salem.

Funeral service will be held at 2 p. m. Sunday at her home. Burial will be made in Hope cemetery.

Death Plot Seen
GENEVA, Nov. 14.—The exchange telegraph today said that the Swiss police have been observing great secrecy in connection with a plot discovered yesterday to assassinate members of the Soviet delegation to the preparatory disarmament commission.

LAW ENFORCERS ORDER RECESS UNTIL NOV. 24

Hoover Commission Confers With Director
Woodcock

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—Furnished with fresh enforcement views by prohibition director Amos W. W.
Woodcock, members of the president's law enforcement commission today reverted to individual work on their dry law report.

After being closeted with the prohibition director for more than two hours late yesterday, the commission declared a sudden adjournment until November 24, with congress convening December 1, hope for a report by that date disappeared completely.

No Reasons Given

No official reasons for the unexpected recess were given, but reports of lack of harmony among the members were discredited, and a majority remained at their desks at headquarters today.

Some members, in fact, were optimistic an agreement could be arrived at, which would include the views of virtually the entire commission. From other sources, however, the possibility was advanced that a minority report would be attached. But there was unanimity in the hope that the report would be prepared by the first of next year.

Recalled by Hoover

The appearance of Woodcock before the commission yesterday was entirely without announcement. Recalled to furnish information wanted by President Hoover and Attorney general Mitchell, as he was about to sail from San Francisco for Honolulu, the prohibition director reached the capital Wednesday but until early today apparently had seen neither of those officials.

Woodcock conferred with G.
Aaron Youngquist, assistant attorney general in charge of prohibition, but said last night he had no definite engagement to see the president or the attorney general.

WINTER'S CHILL FELT ON COAST

Small Water Craft Damaged; Snow Closes
Tioga Pass

(By Associated Press)

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 14.— Snow, wind and rain combined today give California and the Pacific northwest sharp warning of winter's approach.

The beginning of the weather disturbance yesterday brought with it reports of damage to crops and small water craft.

At Monterey a fishing boat was torn from its moorings and two barges loaded with sardines swamped. Rain at Modesto damaged drying beans while in the Fresno cotton district growers were troubled.

Snow Hits Yosemite

Snowfall closed Tioga Pass and Big Oak flat roads in Yosemite.
Tuolumne meadows near the summit of Tioga Pass were buried under a foot of snow. Nine inches fell at Crane Flat.

Portland, Ore., experienced the first snow of the season, as did Salt Lake City, Utah.

At Dawson, Yukon territory, the last open spaces of the Yukon river were frozen over, and the stream was ice-covered from Lake Labetage, Y. T., to Norton Sound, Alaska.

Rain in central and southern California put an abrupt end to high temperatures and reduced to normal the fire hazard.

Storm In Montana

In Montana a snowstorm swept down from the north driving temperatures to below freezing. Fifty automobiles, belonging chiefly to tourists were snowbound near Great Falls.

TODAY

spite of greatly increased rates.
And the government, living and thinking in 1890, not in 1930, will not permit railroads and industries to go to it of useless overhead, expensive business solicitation and wasteful competition, by combination.

An extraordinary feature of our condition is the fact that a Dutch-British concern like "Sagoil" can operate in the United States on an economical monopoly basis forbidden in the case of an American enterprise.

It pays to improve your city, if the improving is done in even a moderately honest and efficient way.

After a long delay New York and New Jersey decided to build a vehicle tunnel under the Hudson river.

In three years 31,000,000 automobiles have used the tunnel, paying $15,500,000 in tolls.

The tunnel cost $54,000,000, and is taking in $6,000,000 a year. In 10 years it will pay for itself.

If cities were run by competent business men instead of being run as is usual, by grafting and ignorant politicians, taxes would be cut down 50 per cent and more; prosperity and values would increase enormously.

The British are interested in the amount of money this country spends for drink and think it may have something to do with our prosperity slump.

Prohibition authorities believe that the United States is now spending $2,848,000,000 a year for drink, whereas in 1913 the country spent

BANK AWARDED TWO JUDGMENTS

Recoveries Made By Liverpool In stitution in Foreclosure Actions

LISBON, Nov. 14.—In two foreclosure actions filed recently in common pleas court by the First National Bank of East Liverpool the bank has recovered a judgment for $2,170 and costs against Fannie E. Harris and others. In a case against A. E.
Harris, the bank has obtained a judgment for $4,175 and costs against Fannie E. and A. E. Harris, and on the cross petition filed against these defendants by the Putters Savings & Loan Co., the latter has obtained a judgment for $4,956.73 and costs. In each of these actions Judge W. F. Lones has entered a decree foreclosing mortgages and orders of sale.

James Webb, who was recently sued for divorce by his wife, Mabel Webb, has been ordered by Judge Lones to show cause next Monday morning why he should not be punished for contempt.

A Decree of Partition

A decree of partition has been entered and a writ ordered by the court in the partition action recently filed by Glen R. Pattison against George Long, Commissioners appointed by the court in this case are J. C. Cunningham, Ray Adam and Henry Holland.

PREMIER SHOT DOWN BY YOUTH; LIFE IN DOUBT

Japanese Leader Attacked
As He Prepares To Board Train

(By International News Service)

TOKIO, Nov. 14.—With an assassin's bullet in his abdomen, Premier Yuko Hamaguchi of Japan battled bravely for his life today.

Hours after he was shot down by a young political fanatic while attending the steps to the Tokyo railway station, the premier's life still hung in the balance, with physicians unable to predict whether he would recover.

An operation was performed by physicians at the Imperial University hospital, for removal of the bullet and the injured parts of the premier's intestines. The gravity of his condition necessitated postponement of the operation for many many hours after the attack.

"We are still hopeful of his recovery," physicians said after the operation.

Shot By Youth

Premier Hamaguchi was shot by a 23-year-old youth who gave his name as Tomoe Sakyo. He said he came from Nagasaki, Sakyo was a member of the Aikokusha (Love of country association), a reactionary patriotic organization.

The attack was believed to have been due to opposition against the London naval treaty, which, certain factious in Japan hold, undermine the defensive strength of the nation, or to dissatisfaction with economic conditions.

On almost the same spot where Premier Hara of Japan was assassinated in November, 1922, Ham-aguchi was attacked a few moments before he was to board a train for Okayama prefecture to join the emperor in attending military maneuvers which start today.

The premier had just reached the head of the stairs, accompanied by his secretary, Foreign Minister Shidehara, and other members of his political party, when Sakyo fired.

Hamaguchi fell, but was caught by his secretary and the baron, who immediately carried him into the office of the stationmaster.

Son Supplies Blood

Physicians were hurriedly summoned, and the premier's wife and other members of his family arrived on the scene a short while after the attack took place. At first it was reported his condition was not serious, but when a blood transfusion was performed in the station, it became known that the premier had but slight chance of recovery. His second son, Iwane Hamaguchi, supplied the blood for the transfusion.

Hundreds of persons comprising the morning rush hour crowds witnessed the attack. Sakyo was seized immediately and taken to the police station, where he readily confessed the crime, authorities said.

This was the second attempt that has been made upon Premier Ham-aguchi's life since he took office on July 2, 1929. Last October a young Japanese sprang with drawn dagger on the running board of an automobile containing the premier as it was leaving Hamaguchi's residence, but the chauffeur swung his wheel sharply and threw the would-be assassin to the ground.

only $1,817,000.000.

That is an increase of a thousand million dollars a year under prohibition.

And worse than this spending of money, is the fact that the $2,848-000,000 are spent for poisonous whiskey, and the money goes to build up a gigantic crime organization.

Britain has a race problem that will interest the south.

The British Kenya colony in East Africa contains 2,500 British white settlers, and 1,000 times as many,
2,500,000, black inhabitants, all
British subjects.

The 2,500 whites demand the right to run the country and, of course, by hook or by crook, they will have that right.

Britain's labor government talks moral platitudes, but to let the 2-500,000 blacks rule would drive out the 2,500 whites and there would be nobody to hire the blacks, and let them to escape from savagery.

BUCKEYE DEATH RATE DROPS IN SEVEN MONTHS

Statistics Are Compiled
By State Department
Of Health

COLUMBUS, Nov. 14.—During the first seven months of 1930, 21 fewer deaths were reported to the state department of health than in the corresponding period of the preceding year, according to a bulletin issued today by the State Department of Health.

There were 45,871 deaths in 1930 as compared with 50,303 for seven months (the corresponding period of tabulation) in 1929. Notwithstanding this general decrease in the total number, the bulletin states, several causes of deaths showed an increase. Among the predominating diseases showing increases were smallpox, 500 per cent; typhoid, fever, 59.5 per cent; acute anterior poliomyelitis, 29 per cent; homicide, 17 per cent; falls, 17 per cent;
suicide, nine per cent; diarrhea and enteritis (under two years) eight per cent; automobile accidents, seven per cent; diabetes, six per cent; cancer, five per cent and disease of the heart, two per cent.

Five counties, according to the bulletin, reported more deaths for this year, as follows: Williams, 13 more; Fulton, 15; DeFiance, eight; Richland, 113; Holmes, seven; Noble, six; Morgan, 14; Jackson, two;
Lawrence, 22; Pickaway, three;
Fayette, 231 Miami, 51. Two counties reported the same number of deaths for each year—Hardin with 214, Medina with 223.

Increase In Richland

The increase of 113 deaths in Richland county was among persons past middle age, with 25 more diseases of the heart; 19 in cerebral hemorrhage, ten in pneumonia, nine in diabetes, five in cancer, five in tuberculosis and three in nephritis.

Among the diseases in preschool and school age, there were 24 fewer deaths and no increase was reported in deaths due to violence.

The increase in the other counties mentioned in the report was found in diseases of the heart, cerebral hemorrhage, nephritis and pneumonia, with Lawrence County reporting an additional increase in whooping cough.

PLANT TO BE READY DEC. 18

Final Unit of Weirton Steel Company's $7,000,000 Expansion Program Nears Completion

STEUBENVILLE, Nov. 14.—The Weirton Steel company's last unit of the $7,000,000 expansion program announced a year ago will go into operation December 18, John C. Williams, president, announced today.

The new mill will manufacture beams, channels, angles, squares and rounds. Operations will expand with orders, he said. Rails, bars and the plates will later be manufactured.
Williams said that Weirton steel company plants in this district are operating on a 46 per cent basis.
The Steubenville plant being over that figure. Eight thousand men are now employed, all getting at least part time employment. He is optimistic about the first quarter for next year.

As a part of the expansion program announced last year, the Weirton Steel company put into operation a new blast furnace last spring and a battery of coke ovens in September.

An indictment charging Casey
with falsification of records and misappropriation of funds was drawn up for presentation to the grand jury by Assistant United States District Attorney William McDermott,
who is handling the case for the government.

It is not believed likely that the government at this time is seeking to involve any other persons in connection with the alleged deficit
at the bank.

Testimony

WASHINGTON, C. H., Nov. 14.— Testimony in the hearing on the plea of Mal S. Daugherty for abatement of 15 indictments returned against him as an outgrowth of the failure of the Ohio State Savings bank, was expected to be completed today.

Daugherty, former president of the bank, is charged with mishandling funds.

Nine members of the grand jury which voted the indictments were called yesterday to deny Daugherty's assertions that his constitutional rights were violated when he was asked to testify and that two special investigators were admitted to the jury's quarters. The jurors said the special investigators appeared before them as witnesses but were not present during consideration of the bank's closing.

They also said Daugherty was advised of his constitutional rights.
Even if Daugherty wins his present plea, he still faces two additional indictments voted two days ago. He will not be arraigned on the new charges until his brother,
C. E. Former U. S. Atty. Gen. Harry
M. Daugherty, returns from New York, probably Saturday.

FEDERAL JURY TO REPORT ON CASEY STATUS

Former Galion Banker Is Charged With Mis-appropriations

(By International News Service)

CLEVELAND, Nov. 14.—Whether James E. Casey, former president of the Citizens' National bank at Galion, O., will be forced to stand trial in federal district court here on charges resulting from the discovery of an alleged shortage of more than $225,000 in the bank's funds, was expected to be known here late today.

The November federal grand jury was expected to decide in its report whether the government's charges against Casey are sufficient to hold him for trial.

An indictment charging Casey
with falsification of records and misappropriation of funds was drawn up for presentation to the grand jury by Assistant United States District Attorney William McDermott,
who is handling the case for the government.

It is not believed likely that the government at this time is seeking to involve any other persons in connection with the alleged deficit
at the bank.

SENATE HEADS DO NOT FAVOR EXTRA SESSION

Leaders Of Both Parties Appear Willing To Cooperate

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—Despite fresh signs of Democratic restiveness under the non-obstruction pledge of party leaders, it appeared today there would be no organization effort at the December term of congress to force an extra session in the spring.

President Hoover announced receipt of assurance yesterday from leaders in the senate of both parties that no effort to block the annual appropriation bills would be countenanced. Upon these measures operation of the government depends and if their passage were prevented by filibustering, the new congress would be called into session.

Breakfast Opposed
Democratic willingness to cooperate left only the western Republican Independents uncommitted. Senator Brookhart, Republican, of Iowa, is one of those who has proposed an extra session, but without Democratic support the independent group would have a hard time putting over a successful filibuster. Disposal of its first hazard to the administration program for the session left the President free to lay plans to attack another obstacle—the conference deadlock over the Muscle Shoals legislation. A compromise between the Norris proposal for government operation of the Alabama Nitrate and Power plant which the senate approved, and the house plans for leasing it to private interests, is hoped for by some.

Hope For Reduction
Hopes for maintenance of last year's one percent income tax reduction also were distinctly lessened today as both Senator Reed, Republican, Pennsylvania, and Representative Byrns of Tennessee, ranking Democrat on the house appropriation's committee predicted a treasury deficit at the end of the fiscal year even without the tax reduction. The Pennsylvania, however, advocated repeal of the capital gains tax, contending the government was the loser in the long run under this fiscal policy. He recommended federal building and naval construction as the two best things congress could legislate for relief from the depression.

MOVIES

DOUBLE FEATURE AT The Royal

The story of "What Men Want," now playing at the Royal theater, was written by Warner Fabian, the ultra-modern author of "Flaming Youth." Pauline Starke and Ben Lyon head the all-star cast which includes also Barbara Kent, Robert Ellis, Hallam Cooley, Carmelita Geraghty and others.

Directed by Ernst Laemmle, the great contrast in the lives of young people of the present day is forcibly dramatized in the conflict of two sisters for the love of the same man. All the froth of the giddy whirl in which they move, the butterfly gaiety of their existence, is portrayed in a veritable paean of pleasure.

A complete rodeo, from bucking horses to trick rope-spinning, was staged by Director Robert De-Lacy for "Pardon My Gun." Pathe's novel western comedy, the other portion of this double feature program.

The picture features in its cast Sally Starr, George Duryea, Robert Edison, the MacFarlane Brothers, world's champion juvenile riders and ropers; Mona Ray, Lee Moran, Harry Woods, Stompe and Harry Watson.

"WAY OUT WEST"
At The State
The ever sure of himself, ever care free and easy going, William Haines brings to the screen once again another of his "what I know" roles, in "Way Out West," now playing at the State theater. Through a strange and unusual way Haines finds himself out in the wild west. Before long he is telling his cowboy rivals just how to run the ranch and what is wrong with it.

Haines gets into one mishap after another and the way he wins the boss of the ranch, Liela Hyams, from his many rivals furnishes many thrills and plenty of laughs. Cliff Edwards (Ukelele Ike) with his trusty uke, and the always funny Polly Moran make this one of the funniest of Haines films.

"SOUP TO NUTS"
At The Grand
Rube Goldberg's keen insight into the true nature of modern Americans so often revealed in his famous comic character creations is most forcibly brought to the screen audiences at the Grand theater tonight in "Soup to Nuts." Fox Movietone production of Goldberg's first comedy romance.

Intertwined into the constant comedy of this mythical story from the pen of America's most celebrated comedy character creator is a delightful romance enacted by two of screenland's youngest lovers, Stanley Smith and Lucile Browne. Their sincere portrayals in the midst of screamingly funny situations must be ranked as one of the outstanding features of this hilarious picture.

Ted Healy and his Racketeers, fresh from their New York stage successes, are the featured comedians in a cast that includes such other featured funsters as Frances McCoy, Charles Winninger, George Buckle and Wm. Tooker.

HAVANA POLICE BATTLE CROWD; 7 DIE, 25 HURT

Riot Threats Loom Still Despite Military Guards

BY K. D. GILMORE

United Press Staff Correspondent HAVANA, Nov. 14.—Threats of further rioting hung over the Cuban capital today, despite the heavily armed military and police patrols which guarded the city.

A 13-year-old boy, Jose Lima, was killed by a stray bullet, and an unidentified man was seriously wounded, when police battled a large, hostile throng of students and government opponents last night. This fatality brought the unofficial death toll in yesterday's riots to seven.

At least 25 persons were believed injured. Among them was Arturo T. Soria, 24, of Key West, Fla., who has lived in Havana for several years but maintained his American citizenship.

Several women were in the crowd which started last night's riot. Among the persons arrested before the demonstration was broken up was a beautiful young girl who police said had attacked them with a baseball bat.

Efforts to restore peace to Havana and its suburbs appeared difficult when leaders of students in Havana university announced that they would continue their demonstrations against the government until Dr. Avenhoff, secretary of education, is removed from his post and other changes are made in the university administration.

The disturbances which finally brought the capital under martial law yesterday began a month ago when students held an anti-administration demonstration to protest the government's order closing the university until after the national elections.

Hunter Is Killed

ZANESVILLE, Nov. 14.—The first accident of the local hunting season took the life today of Edward Abele, 21, of Zanesville. The youth was killed last yesterday when his shot gun accidentally exploded in his hand.

Abele was stepping from a canoe while hunting ducks near here when the weapon discharged. His hand and part of his face were blown off.

Woman Is Candidate To Take Place Of Davis In Cabinet

Miss Grace Abbot Backed Strongly For Important Post

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14—Will America follow the example of Great Britain and elect a woman to fill the cabinet office? If official Washington has anything to say, there is every chance that Miss Grace Abbot will be chosen to fill the important post of Secretary of Labor, vacated by James J. Davis, who has been elected Senator from Pennsylvania.

Behind the quiet campaign that is being waged to elect Miss Abbot, there is a determined move to place the brilliant head of the Children's Bureau of the Department of Labor in an office where her exceptional attainments and qualifications would have ample opportunity and scope. It is admitted that it is problematical whether she will be the choice of President Hoover, although it is rumored that the White House is considering her and her backing very seriously. Friends interested in Miss Abbot and her work have been making overtures on her behalf to the President since the anticipated retirement of Secretary Davis.

Senator Robert H. Howell, one of the Hoover men in the Senate, joined forces with Senator George Norris, an independent Republican, in urging Miss Abbot's appointment. Samuel R. McKelvie of the Farm Board also expressed his approval of her nomination for the cabinet post. All these supporters of Miss Abbot and others who are interested in her feel that such an appointment would forestall the usual criticism that is generally forthcoming after every appointment of an important character.

Miss Abbot recently returned from Geneva to find that the boom for her had assumed enormous proportions. She had gone to Europe as a delegate from the United States to the League of Nations' Commission on Traffic in Women and Children, an office that was offered to her as a tribute to her efforts in the field of children's welfare.

The National Federation of Settlements has passed a resolution asking the President to act favorably on an appointment that would contribute much to the welfare of workers of all grades and types.

Some of the most important people in the country, people who do not as a rule concern themselves in the Presidential cabinet appointments, have come out enthusiastically for Miss Abbot. These include Gerard Swope, president of the General Electric Company; Judge Julian Mack, of Chicago; Professor Felix Adler, of Columbia University; Dr. Henry Sloan Coffin, of the Union Theological Seminary; General Abel Davis, of Chicago, and Bernard Rothwell,

MISS GRACE ABBOTT

chairman of the Massachusetts Immigration Committee.

Although Miss Abbot is an enrolled Republican she has paid scant heed to party affairs and has gone quietly about her tasks in the capital. She is not active in the present efforts to gain for her a place in the Cabinet. She is a charter member of the Federal Employees Union, but the attitude of the American Federation of Labor has not yet become known, although she is in good standing with Federation officials.

And so it would seem that with all Miss Abbot's qualifications, backing, experience and popularity, she is certainly entitled to earn

Presidential consideration. The only drawback seems to be that she is a woman, and it is about the only reason that anyone could advance. So thinks official Washington and so think the people who have come in contact with this dynamic but, withal, quiet worker for the welfare of women and children.

SURINAM TOAD

MOLE CRICKET

TOBACCO FIELD

ATLANTA, Ga. Nov. 13.—There's a new war on in the vegetable world. It is the battle between the giant Surinam toad, of British Guiana and the dangerous little mole cricket. The battle is being waged on farms in Georgia and the Carolinas. And the farmers are hoping that the toads will win. For the truck garden industry depends upon it.

The voracious and costly attacks of the pest known as mole cricket are making themselves felt along the South coast. And at a mass meeting recently it was decided to import hundreds of Surinam toads, for the very simple reason that to the toad the mole cricket is a rare delicacy, something of a feast, so to speak. Of course at a pinch the Surinam toad will devour ants, grubs of beetles and even cockroaches.

The two contestants for the freedom of the truck garden are both extremely interesting to both scientist and laymen. The toad is in a way one of the most remarkable creatures in the animal world. The full grown toad, introduced first into Porto Rico, weighs five pounds. It was in Porto Rico, where the mole cricket was becoming something of a national menace, that the Surinam toad was introduced as a last resort. It was effective and has reduced considerably the numbers of the tunneling pests.

The Surinam toad is hatched in a remarkable way. The eggs laid by the female are inserted by the male into a number of small cav-

Surinam toad flourishes best in marshy country.

The mole cricket, although only one inch and a half long, has proven itself a formidable enemy of tobacco plantations. It girdles the stems of the tobacco plants soon after they are transported to the fields.

The mole cricket lives in burrows under the ground, much in the manner of the small animal after which it is named. Its principal method of attack is made by tunneling through the upper inches of the soil. In burrowing it pushes the earth up in ridges and keeps the top soil so disturbed that the seeds and young plants cannot develop normally.

The seeds therefore fail to germinate and the seedlings are destroyed by the interference with their delicate root systems. The cricket of course feeds on the seeds and so destroys the young plants.

In addition to its other destructive methods, it cuts open the shells of ripened peanuts and eats the kernels. It also bores holes into potatoes and thus renders them unfit for market.

It is hoped that the wholesale importation of the Surinam toad will have the desired effect and will succeed in its mission. Otherwise the truck farmers are afraid that the depredations of the dangerous little mole cricket will spread to other localities.

MALDEN, Mass.—Included in the backyard garden harvest of Patsy Medozzi this fall was a beet 13 inches in circumference and weigh- ing 12 pounds 12 ounces. It meas- ured 41 inches from the top of the foliage to the tip of the root.

HOMEWORTH

Mr. and Mrs. N. U. Grimes and sons Kenneth and Harold and daughter Margery of Yeagley's Corners spent Monday evening with Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Grimes.

Mr. and Mrs. Fauble of Alliance were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. George Reed visited with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Scharlett of Waterville Sunday.

A surprise party was given Tuesday in honor of the birthday of Miss Viola Hardy. The guests included schoolmates of Miss Hardy's.

Mr. and Mrs. Laird Morrow and daughter Kathryn of Westville and Mrs. Olive Simms and son, Wayne, of Sebring, were guests at the D. W. Thomas home Tuesday.

Mrs. Alice Emerick of Nebraska was called here by the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. William Miller.

Mrs. Ruth Hoover and baby Marilyn of Alliance, spent Wednesday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Freshley.

Mr. and Mrs. Kash Frazer of Alliance have moved to Homeworth.

The first annual meeting of the Mt. Pleasant teachers and students' union of district No. 9 was held here recently. Ten teachers and more than 100 students and friends attended. Dinner was served in the school basement.

A tree was planted in memory of many students who once attended the school. W. L. Holwick of Salem was in charge. Miss Aethel Willard of Cleveland, gave a reading, "Only God Can Make a Tree." Oakley Bailey was the oldest teacher present. He was elected honorary president of the union. Albert Hawkins was the oldest student present. The following officers were elected to serve during the ensuing year, Mrs. Susan B. McQuinn president; Hugh Knoll, vice president, and L. J. Hawkins secretary-treasurer.

Weight of Experience

Surely With Solomon

When William Jennings Bryan buttonholed John Baird, to talk to him about marrying his daughter, Mary Elizabeth, in his dilemma, the young man sought refuge in the Scriptures, and began:

"Mr. Baird, I have been reading Proverbs a good deal lately, and find that Solomon says, 'Whoso findeth a wife findeth a good thing and obtaineth favor of the Lord.'"

Mr. Baird, being something of a Biblical scholar himself, replied: "Yes, I believe Solomon did say that, but Paul suggests that while he that marrieth doeth well, he that marrieth not doeth better."

This was disconcerting, chuckled Mrs. Bryan, recalling the interview—it is reported in M. R. Werner's biography of her distinguished husband—but the young man saw his way through.

"Solomon would be the better authority upon this point," rejoined Mr. Bryan, "because Paul was never married, while Solomon had a number of wives."

After this friendly tilt the matter was satisfactorily arranged.—Kansas City Times.

"Mind" Only Great Need for Immortal Writing

A discussion of Prof. Lascelles Abercrombie on the supposed "persistent assumption that this is the day of the short poem" reminds me, writes a correspondent to a columnist in the Manchester Guardian, of the scorn with which Browning, late in life, received a suggestion from a publisher that what the public would like from him would be more short poems—more lyrics. "Pooh," said Browning. "Lyrics? I could give you buckets of them, but they're not worth the trouble." Tennyson regarded "Maud" as the best of his poems (though he was very unwilling to read it aloud, because, if he did so at all, he liked to read it right through), but the fact that he did not write more long poems than he did was probably due to a very curious flash of insight which caused him to say once, "I can execute like Shakespeare, but I have nothing in me." This confession may be regarded as the antithesis of Wordsworth's (as reported by Lamb) "Says he does not see much difficulty in writing like Shakespeare if he had a mind to try it. It is clear that nothing is wanting but the mind."

Explained in Full

"Well, Martin," said the country squire to his ex-footman, who had left for a year before to join the navy and had returned on leave, "how do you like your new life?" "Fine, sir," said the sailor. "That's good," said the ex-master. "Yes, sir, it's a grand life. Once upon a time I didn't think much of the sea, though," the sailor explained, "but now I see that the water's the finest thing in the world. For instance, if there was no water in the world not one of us would learn to swim, and then look at what a lot of people would be drowned."—London Tit-Bits.

Important Vitamin

In testing foods for vitamin C in the laboratory, guinea pigs are fed a basal diet complete except for this vitamin, and then given measured amounts of the food in question. If the animal thrives and grows well, the food is probably a good source of vitamin C; if the animal develops symptoms of scurvy—sore, stiff joints, a tendency to hemorrhage, sore gums, loosening of teeth, and fragile bones—the food under test probably is deficient in vitamin C. Similar symptoms are found in human beings whose diet has lacked the foods that supply this important vitamin.

Four sewing machines in need of repair form the nucleus of a "sewing machine clinic" to be held at the Disciple church, North Jackson, on Friday, Nov. 21, beginning at 10 a. m. Mrs. S. G. Patton, president of the Federated Ladies' Aid, at North Jackson, learned that the church is in possession of four machines that need cleaning, so she immediately called Miss L. Florence Booth, home demonstration agent and inquired as to ways and means of getting those machines put into good working order. A sewing machine clinic under direction of R. D. Barden, agricultural engineering department of Ohio State university was suggested. If enough machines could be secured. Now there are 17 machines ready and waiting to attend the "sewing machine clinic" next Friday.

The home canning of meats and vegetables is being taken up as a study by women in Beaver, Canfield, Greene, Smith and Springfield townships and meetings on the canning of meat are being held in these sections of the county now.

The social sisters club, under direction of Mrs. Clinton Beard and Mrs. Charles W. Moll, and the Springfield township group under leadership of Mrs. Herbert Wilson and Mrs. C. F. Stewart, are holding meetings on meat canning this week.

DAMASCUS

Mrs. James Hopes entertained her daughters and their children Tuesday, at a dinner observing her birthday. There were 40 present. Mrs. E. M. Steer was a guest. The out of town guests were Mrs. Wilmer Hoopes and daughter of Sebring, and Mrs. Charles Hipley of Salem.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist Episcopal church served a chicken supper to the Square Deal Grocers of Salem and Damascus, Wednesday evening in the church basement. After the supper, speeches were given by Messrs. Kress, Cabbage and McGuire of Canton.

Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Stanley were surprised Wednesday evening by about 40 relatives, the occasion being Mr. Stanley's birthday. Games were enjoyed. A lunch was served. Out of town guests were Robert Bricker and Douglas Matheson of Yonkers, N. Y., and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Grimes of Freeburg; Harry Blackburn and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Haupt of Alliance, attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kohler and daughter, Marian; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kohler and A. R. Sheehan of Akron, visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hoffman, recently.

Mrs. Annie Pettit was a recent visitor of her sister, Mrs. Sarah Sheehan of Canton.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Oesch visited Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Kiser of Lockwood Thursday.

Robert and Miss Georgia Carr and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Dodd left Wednesday for Florida where they will spend the winter.

Rev. Horace Hales of Lansing, O., spent a few days this week with Rev. and Mrs. C. F. Rothel and family.

Mrs. C. E. Crawford is ill.

Mrs. E. Grise entertained the Friendship club at a one o'clock luncheon Wednesday.

The W. C. T. U. met with Mrs. Sylvester Jackson Thursday afternoon. Responsive reading on "Peace" was followed by prayer by Mrs. Sarah Maris. Mrs. Ellsworth gave a report of the state W. C. T. U. meeting held at Youngstown in October. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. L. M. Shreve and there will be an exchange of Christmas gifts.

About 30 women met at the Methodist church Thursday when a demonstration was given on "How to Serve Dinner." A pot luck dinner was also received. Talks were given by Mrs. B. E. Cameron, Mrs. Charles Morlan, Mrs. Thomas Warrington and Mrs. A. E. Bailey. A demonstration on the serving of supper will be given in the basement of the Friends church, Dec. 11. A demonstration of refilling furniture will be given soon.

Makes Good in City

The small-town boy who went forth to conquer the world and returned home rolling in wealth has nothing on Miss Anna B. Gordon (above), of Dallas, Texas, whose story reads like an Alamy tale. Ten years ago she set forth from the diminutive town of Flat Creek, Tenn., to make her way in the world. She recently returned with $3,000,000.

Ohio Mother's Lucky Find

WHEN we find that some slight adjustment makes a marvelous improvement in a child we wonder why we hadn't thought before to give the child this help.

A good example is the experience of Mrs. C. Kahl, 6812 Whitney Ave., Cleveland. She says: "My little girl was doing fairly well but I noticed she didn't eat like she should and didn't seem to have much energy."

"I wanted to do something for her, and a friend recommended California Fig Syrup, so I gave her some. Iona improved so much I wonder why I didn't do something for her stomach and bowels before. It relieved her sluggishness, gave her a good appetite and plenty of energy."

To point up a child's appetite, increase energy and strength, assist digestion and assimilation, there's nothing more effective than pure vegetable California Fig Syrup. Doctors advise its use to open the bowels during colds and children's diseases, or whenever bad breath, coated tongue, headaches, listlessness, etc., warn of constipation.

The genuine always bears the name California. So look for that when buying. At all drugstores.

HOME-MAKING HELPS

By Wanda Barton

Add Sieves In a Series

Series of sieves of graduated size lined under a kitchen shelf aroused the amusement of a caller. "Are you a sieve collector?" she inquired, pointing out some seven different sieves. But the housekeeper defended her investment.

"How often do you need more than one sieve while cooking? I find that occasionally I need two or three while working over just one meal. The baby's vegetables have to be rubbed through one kind of sieve and orange juice goes through another, and here's one for my pot of tea and mashed potatoes need something coarser. And there you are."

Sieves are such inexpensive items—most of them can be bought in the ten cent store—and often they save cooking time as well as the extra trouble of washing one kind of sieve to serve several purposes. Apples cooked in their skins, then forced through a sieve save the time of careful peeling beforehand and moreover, have a better flavor.

Some value between pulp and skin is lost by paring when raw, and it is preserved when the apple is cooked in its skin. A more elaborate invention for sieving fruits and vegetables is now on the market and saves some of the time required for forcing a sieve with the simple implements of sieve and wooden spoon. It consists of a conical wire frame which can be fastened firmly to a table. The narrow conical wooden roller is placed within and one rolls this sieve and orange juice goes through around the edge of the frame after the cooked food is placed within. It looks simple and does the work a little faster than usual. Certainly an ample sieve for mixing flour is an essential. The tin ones of one-quart size or more can be had for small sums, and these are a great aid to good mixing of ingredients, as well as lightness of flour.

Lisbon Plays Here In Salem High's Final Home Game Tonight

THE DAY In Sports

GREAT RECORD AT HOME
PITT MEETS OHIO STATE
PICKING THE WINNERS

Salem High's football team will have a record of winning 23 straight games out of their home gridiron at Reilly stadium after tonight's game against Lisbon High. The Red and Black also will probably have established a new all-time scoring record for a season, needing only 25 points to exceed to 1922 total of 266 points while for the present campaign, the game will mark the Red and Black's ninth consecutive victory.

The last time the Quakers were defeated at home was when Alliance knocked out a 2-0 triumph after Ed Singler, Bob VanBlaricom and other Salem stars outplayed the visitors most of the game. This was on Thanksgiving Day 1928. Since that game Salem has taken 22 straight games on its home field and is expected to trounce Lisbon with ease tonight.

In the nine games played this season—including the benefit contest with Sebring—Salem has totaled 242 points. Ed Beck has scored 97 of these while Bill Smith has registered 61.

The invasion of Ohio State's stadium of the Pitt Panther is watched with acute interest in this city and great hopes are expressed that Salem Sam Willaman's lads will be able to trim the Pennsylvanians just as they were trimmed last year. The Scarlet and Gray, with Dick Larkins of East Liverpool and Bob Van Blaricom of Salem representing Columbiana county, showed up strong against Navy last Saturday and because of the team's great improvement, a victory is predicted over Pitt.

East Palestine does not face East Liverpool as scheduled earlier in the season. Martins Ferry's strong team clashing with the Poters. Martins Ferry is picked. Over in the Mahoning Valley district Chaney is expected to lick Dayton Steele and Rayen should defeat Warren. Struthers will have it easy with Youngstown East and South might trim New Castle.

Canton McKinley and Alliance clash in a game that will decide the Stark county championship and it is certain that this game won't be won by any big margin. Alliance has a great opportunity to make it two straight over McKinley. Wells-ville will beat Columbiana handily. Others favored Saturday follow:

Dayton over John Carroll; Wooster over Mount Union; Miami to trim Oberlin; Ohio Wesleyan to beat Denison; Temple will beat Lafayette; Brown to beat Columbia and Forehand to trim St. Mary's. Dartmouth and Cornell battle in the East's leading game with the former being favored. Yale will trounce Princeton and Harvard will defeat Holy Cross. Army to beat Kentucky Wesleyan; Southern Methodist to trim Navy; Villanova to beat Ogleshorpe; Illinois to trim Chicago; Minnesota will beat Michigan; Northwestern will clinch Big Ten titular honors by beating Wisconsin and Purdue will beat Butler.

Big games in other sections include: Kansas vs. Oklahoma, Arkansas vs. Baylor, Notre Dame vs. Drake vs. Florida, Colorado vs. Utah, Texas Christian vs. Texas, Tulane vs. Georgia, Vanderbilt vs. Tennessee. Favorites are: Oklahoma, Baylor, Notre Dame, Clemson, Utah, Texas, Tulane, Tennessee, Southern will trim Hawaii.

CANTON, Nov. 14.—Neither Dr. M. H. Reno nor Russell H. Bovim, theatre manager, had ever gone duck hunting before, but that's not what they told each other.

"They went out to a lake yesterday to test each other's stories of prowess and almost immediately came upon a fine lot of birds floating lazily. They fired in unison. Not one duck took flight."

"Some shooting," said Bovim. "Boy, that beats 'em," said Reno. And then an irate hunter rose up from the reeds.

Bovim and Reno are paying for the decoys.

Fight Results

PATERSON, N. J.—Jackie Shupack, Paterson, outpointed Herman Perlick, Kalamazoo, Mich., (10). MIAMI, Fla.—Tommy Cello, California, knocked out Louis "Kid" Perz, Cuba, (2).

CINCINNATI.—Johnny Farr, Cleveland, outpointed Freddie Millar, Cincinnati, (10).

MASON CITY, IA.—DM. Hampton, Mason City, outpointed Jack McDonough, St. Paul, (8).

Stonemen Seek Ninth Straight Victory In Tilt At Reilly Stadium

Salem fandom gathers in the concrete bleachers of Reilly athletic stadium to witness Coach Floyd Stone's powerful grid machine in action on its home gridiron tonight for the last time this season, the occasion marking the 18th annual grid conflict between Lisbon High and footballers representing the Quaker City.

Stone's gladiators will be seeking their ninth consecutive victory of their 1930 campaign and incidentally, were they to trim Lisbon and a victory is anticipated, it will mark the team's 23rd successive verdict annexed by Salem football teams on their home battlefield. Salem grid teams have not been defeated at Reilly stadium since Thanksgiving Day, 1928, when Alliance won a 2-0 decision here.

46 LASSIES OUT FOR BASKETBALL AT COLUMBIANA

COLUMBIANA, Nov. 14.—Coach Ruth Young, girls' physical director of Columbiana High school has issued the first call for basketball practice, 46 girls including 12 from last year's squad reporting. This number will be reduced to 18 by the opening of the season, December 5th, against Boardman.

The principal problem will be the development of forwards to fill vacancies of graduated regulars. Capt. Seederly Lehman and Sewall Maxine Vaughn first substitute forward is also not in school. The entire front line group of guards, Shaffer, Shearer, Fisher and Greaves, will be available, however, so prospects for a good season are rather promising. Last year's team won 11 out of 17 games.

In addition to the regular members, Coleman, Henry, Hart, Mitchell, McKenzie, Gruber, Zellers and the McFadden sisters have all seen service as substitutes.

A meeting of the Child Conservation league was held Monday evening at the home of Mrs. G. A. Funk, County Line road. Ten members responded to roll call by telling "Why Mothers Turn Gray." Supt. C. E. Bender gave an interesting talk on "Radio Education." Mrs. Bender was a guest. Mrs. Olaf Todd presented a paper on "Developing and Training the Imagination—Its Constructive Value; and Mrs. Funk one on "Dealing With the Lie of Fear, Vigoriveness and Weakness as Opposed to Imagination."

The regular meeting of Benjamin Firestone post, American Legion, was held Wednesday evening. Plans were made for the entertainment of the Columbiana County council here on Wednesday evening, November 28 at which time county council officers will be elected for the coming year.

Mrs. Wilford Swift and Mrs. Stewart Orr spent Wednesday with Mrs. Jack Yahn and daughter, Sally Ann, Youngstown.

Supt. C. E. Bender attended a meeting of county school superintendents at Lisbon Wednesday afternoon.

The local schools will be dismissed Friday so that teachers may make their annual visit to other schools.

Mrs. Stewart Orr and son, Clifford, spent the week-end at Bellevue, Pa. with Mrs. Sara Edwards.

Mr. and Mrs. Gaylord Zellers are victim for the Red and Black, having lost four out of seven games played this far this season. Victories were won by Coach Blackwell's eleven against Newell, W. Va., Columbiana and Louisville while the team in turn dropped decisions to Sebring, Warren, Minerva and East Palestine.

Lisbon To Put Up Fight
A hard battle will be displayed by the Lisbonites despite the fact that the Stonemen are conceded heavy favorites to roll up a one-sided score on the invaders. The two teams have played but two mutual grid adventures during the season, Salem winning easily in each case while Lisbon dropped one-sided verdicts to the same opponents, Sebring and Warren. Warren trounced the county seat eleven, 53-0 while Sebring cased through a 19-6 decision.

Lisbon's most impressive games were played against Newell and Louisville. The former was defeated, 20-0, in the season's opener, while Louisville lost by a 13-8 score when Blackwell's lads flashed unexpected strength.

Injuries Prove Handicap
Injuries have played havoc with Blackwell's varsity most of the season but he expects to have his strongest lineup available to battle the Quakers. In that the latter aggregation will have more than a week's rest prior to the annual Thanksgiving Day battle with Alliance, Stone is expecting to use his varsity team and it is entirely likely that all regulars, with the exception of Jackie Carpenter, will start the conflict.

It will be the last night football game available to grid addicts in this district until the Red and Black opens its 1931 campaign against Canton McKinley under the Reilly floodlights.

The parents of a baby girl, born Sunday at their home, Union street, Mrs. John Ryan, Jr., Mrs. Clark Ogilvie and Mrs. G. G. Pinkerton and daughter, Bertha Mae, were Youngstown visitors Wednesday afternoon.

Willard Hoffman has accepted a position at Roller's book store during the holiday season.

Mrs. V. C. Basinger was hostess to the Do Drop In club Tuesday afternoon at her home, Duquesne street, with 11 members present. An afternoon spent with needlework was followed by lunch. Mrs. C. B. Clapp will be the next hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Holloway entertained bridge club associates Monday evening at their home, S. Main street, with two tables in play. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Guy will entertain in two weeks at their home, S. Elm street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Robinson entertained a group of friends Monday evening at their home, Fair- dale avenue, in honor of their 10th wedding anniversary. Three tables of "500" were enjoyed. Lunch was served.

The Music Study club of Salem met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. E. T. Coyle. The opera, "Faust," was studied. Mrs. Edgar Miller sang the "Jewel Song" in French; and Mrs. Dick Fitzpatrick and Mrs. E. L. Church favored with a vocal duet.

LONDON—Brides at most of the smart weddings here this year have discarded bouquets.

Amateur Boxers To Vie For Honors In Liverpool Tourney

EAST LIVERPOOL, Nov. 14.—Amateur boxers of Hancock, Jefferson, Beaver and Columbiana counties will get a chance to display fistie talents before district fans in the first "golden gloves" tournament ever held in the tri-state district, scheduled in Eagles hall here Tuesday, Nov. 25.

The tourney, sponsored by the Foutts brothers of this city, will last four weeks. It is open to all amateur fighters of the four counties. "Golden Glove" trophies will be awarded to winners in each division.

Al Singer Defends Lightweight Title

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—Al Singer's first defense of his lightweight championship brings him up against rugged little Tony Canzoneri in Madison Square Garden tonight in a 15-round bout.

Singer, who won the title by knocking out Sammy Mandell in a single round here last summer is a favorite at odds of 2 to 1 or more. Singer and Canzoneri have met once before, their first match being a draw.

Northwestern Grid Combine Expected To Clinch Honors In Big Ten Race Saturday

BY WILLIAM WEEKES

(Associated Press Sports Writer)
CHICAGO, Nov. 14.—No matter what happens on Western conference gridirons tomorrow, the Big Ten football championship situation will be pretty well settled by night-fall.

Northwestern and Michigan are on the verge of winning—or tying for—the 1930 title, with Purdue the defending champion, looming up in the background. Northwestern closes its conference season tomorrow, meeting Wisconsin at Evanston in the annual Homecoming game with a capacity crowd of nearly 49,000 assured.

If the Wildcats wallop the Badgers, while Michigan should triumph over Minnesota, the race will end in a tie, as the Wolverines have only Chicago to play a week hence. Nobody doubts Michigan's ability to conquer the Maroons who have not won a major test this season.

Renner On Bench
Northwestern will take the field without Pug Renner, fullback and forward passing star, who injured his shoulder playing against Minnesota two weeks ago. Northwestern is favored to beat the Badgers.

Minnesota, looming up as the last obstacle in Michigan's path to the title, or at least a share of it, is preparing for an upset—that is, to upset the Wolverines. At least, Coach Harry Kipke has grave fears that the thundering herd from the north may do the unexpected. Minnesota is out of the championship.

While Michigan and Northwestern are striving for championship honors, Purdue, with only a point after touchdown defeat marring its record, will be engaging Butler at Lafayette, hoping that two upsets may occur tomorrow, resulting in the defeat of the two leaders. In that event, Purdue could claim the title on a percentage basis, although beaten by Michigan.

Ohio Meets Pitt
Chicago and Illinois will play at Stagg field in a game which will take either out of the cellar. Neither has won a conference conflict this season. Ohio State and Iowa will engage outside competition, with the Buckeyes, developing power with each game, meeting Pittsburgh at Columbus, and Penn State will come to the land of the tall corn to test its strength against Iowa.

Notre Dame will meet the stubborn Drake Bulldogs, the boys who gave the Irish one of their bitterest struggles of the 1929 season.

Jefferson County Drillers Tap Earth For Liquid Gold

Spudding Operations Are Launched By Eastern Ohio Company

(By Associated Press)
STEUBENVILLE, Nov. 14—The favors of the giant oil, who lurks beneath the earth and turns, figuratively, to liquid gold for its discoverers, are being sought in Jefferson county.

If the prospectors, who have come here backed by a scientific belief that oil flows beneath the ground, succeed in making even a passing friend of the giant, the environs of this city may resemble certain parts of Oklahoma and Texas.

Geysers will reach up avidly—and touch the sky with grease daubed fingers, leaving smudges on the sun. The sharp, metallic song of the drills will ring long into the night. Oil spotted workers will go here and there—and newly created millionaires will watch their latest possessions through binoculars.

Seek Pool of Oil
The geologic ages, history when the greater dragon pinned the lesser in the slime, have stored a titanic pool of oil in the strata along the adjoining countryside, experts of the Benedum-Trees company, Pittsburgh, believe, and they are backing their convictions with the most modern equipment in the eastern part of the nation. The proof of the pudding, they are certain, is in the eating—and soon they hope to achieve results.

The infancy of the oil fields already is visiting this locality. Spudding operations have been begun by the Eastern Ohio Development company, subsidiary of the Pittsburgh corporation, which is a large producer of petroleum in eastern and western fields and in foreign countries.

2,000 Acres Acquired
Two thousand acres in Jefferson county have been acquired—and an additional 8,000 added, making a total of 10,000 acres devoted to the project. At least three tests will be made in an attempt to reach the Clinton sands, where the giant is believed to be hiding, waiting for a rumbling introduction to mankind.

If the pool is not tapped there, the drills will begin to sing in Trenton sands, never touched in this part of the state and believed to be 10,000 feet below surface. The Clinton sands lie at 5000 to 6000 feet below the surface.

Jefferson County In Basin
Engineers are working on the theory that large oil pools are found near large bodies of water, subterranean or at the surface.

Clinton sands are found around 2000 feet at Lake Erie; it is therefore concluded that the stratum drops 27 feet to the mile along rivers a course toward the Ohio River, the nearest largest body of water. It is further believed the stratum starts an upswing in west-Jefferson county in the basin of a mammoth syncline.

Within that basin, slumbering perhaps, lurks the titan oil, the engineers believe.

In the Clinton sands north and west of Jefferson county spouting, saucy, powerful gassers have been found. Eastern Ohio and western Pennsylvania for years have furnished a steady flow of oil from small rigs which have pumped oil and gas from the Beysa sands, one-third the depth of Clinton.

Drilling for the Clinton sands oil is prohibitive, so great is the cost involved—so the test has been somewhat delayed. But now things are rapidly shaping for the test.

Steel Rig Erected
A steel rig, resembling one of the Martians of H. G. Wells' "War of the Worlds", already has been erected for the task. It is 94 feet high, and the cost of its casing, or armor, alone is $13,000. The rig required 33 tons of steel with 75 squares of lumber for its flooring. It has a spread of 624 square feet at its base.

Completion of the first test will require six months. If neither Clinton nor Trenton sands are touched at that point other test locations will be tapped.

With such an array of frankensteins against him, producers believe the Green Giant will surrender, coming rearing to the surface of the earth and far beyond in a mammoth, murky geyser!

O. S. U. ALUMNI FESTIVAL WILL BE HELD DEC. 3

Buckeye Talent To Broadcast In Special Program

COLUMBUS, Nov. 14.—Ohio State day, traditional festival of Ohio State university alumni all over the world, will be celebrated Wednesday, December 3, with an all-star radio program over a network of five stations, besides 100 or more local meetings. It was announced here today by J. B. Fullen, national alumni secretary.

Chief feature of the observance will be the radio program made up of Ohio State talent from the stage, screen, literature and radio itself. Part of the program will be broadcast from the New York studios of WGBS and part of it from WEAQ, the campus station.

Nugent Invited

Among those invited to take part in the broadcast from New York are Elliott Nugent, playwright, actor and star of "The Poor Nut" and other shows; Frank Crumit, radio and musical comedy star; James G. Thurber, humorist and member of the staff of the New Yorker; Patrick Kearney, dramatist; Grant Mitchell, the actor; Georgia Backus and Margaret Speaks, radio stars and Charles Breakaw, actor.

From WEAQ those on the tentative program include Fred Correll, Detroit, who wrote "Carmen Ohio," the alma mater song; W. A. Dougherty, Cleveland, composer of the two varsity football songs; Don Russ and Jack Brooks, radio team, the university band and glee club, and Clyde Kelly and Roma Gaskill, stars of the current Scarlet Mask Show.

Righttime On Air

President George W. Righttime will radiocast a personal message to alumni about the university. Another nationally known guest speaker also will address listeners in.

Besides WGBS and WEAQ, stations in the special Ohio State Day network include WLW, Cincinnati; WJR, Detroit; KQV, Pittsburgh; WTAM, Cleveland and KYW, Chicago.

The radio program will supplement the local meetings in cities and communities throughout the nation. Others are scheduled in Paris, London, Haiti, Porto Rico and the Philippines.

BERLIN.—One of the largest collection of newspapers in the world has just been made available to the public. The collection is at Aachen and was founded in 1898. There are 150,000 newspapers and among the oddities are an Eskimo newspaper and a number of manuscript newspapers from the middle of the last century. There is also a spirit-inistic newspaper printed on black paper with white characters.

OHIO POULTRY IS READY FOR WINTER WORK

Old Mother Hen Prepares For Heavy Production Season

COLUMBUS, Nov. 14.—Old Mother Hen, who furnishes your breakfast 365 days a year, has something in common with an Olympic athlete.

She must go into training before the heavy laying season annually. So farm poultry flocks throughout the state are now in their winter quarters getting ready for the intensive period of egg production.

C. M. Ferguson, extension specialist in poultry husbandry at Ohio State university, has explained the process which precede the time of upmost productivity in the hens.

Good Production Possible

Profitable winter egg production is possible, he tells the farmers, in warm, clean houses only. These must be liberally supplied with litter, from hens fed well-balanced rations. Lights must be used properly.

Because the corn crop is short this year, it will be necessary in many cases, he says, to feed wheat and oats as rations instead of corn. To such a combination he recommends that alfalfa leaf meal or some legume hay be added to supply enough vitamin A, which otherwise would be deficient.

State Rations Listed

A ration that will, according to Ferguson, be used by state institutions in Ohio this winter, and which is adapted to farm conditions, consists of 100 pounds of ground yellow corn, 100 pounds of ground wheat, 80 pounds of ground oats, 40 pounds of meat scraps, 20 pounds of fish meal, 2 pounds of dried, skimmed milk or dried buttermilk, 30 pounds of alfalfa leaf meal, eight pounds of bone meal and two pounds of salt. Liquid milk may be used, he says, in place of dried milk, and if fish meal is not available with amount of meat scrap may be increased to 60 pounds, he advises.

If and when water is replaced

Check dandruff!

You, too, can say goodbye to hair worries, if you learn this simple method of caring for the hair. It is known to hundreds of stage and screen stars; used by thousands of women and girls, who haven't time for laborious methods.

Sprinkle a little Danderine on your brush tonight. Then as you brush your hair you'll feel the soothing, toning effects.

For over 30 years, specialists have recommended Danderine to dissolve the crust of dandruff, stop falling hair; tone the scalp, encourage the hair to grow long, silky and abundant.

The first application gives your hair new life and lustre; makes it softer; easier to manage; holds it like you arrange it. Evidence beyond doubt proves the benefits of its regular use.

WINONA

The Winona Friends Missionary meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Edwin Thomas, Thursday afternoon. Elizabeth Cope, had charge of the devotionals. Mary Whitacre read a poem. Dora Whitacre gave a reading entitled, "Working Together." Ida Stratton read a very interesting letter from one of their missionaries in China. Elsie Matti, Elizabeth Cope gave a selection, "A Cup of Cold Water." Mrs. Edwin Thomas and Mrs. Alphonetta Hoopes each gave an appropriate reading.

Lydia Brantingham gave a report from the Quarterly meeting, Sunday afternoon on Claude Roane's missionary sermon.

Mary Whitacre and Ida Stratton sang a duet, "Let Your Light Shine in the Darkness."

The December meeting will be held at the parsonage. It will be an all day meeting and a cover dish dinner will be served at noon. During the morning quilt blocks will cut and pieced.

Rev. and Mrs. Angie and two daughters of Washingtonville were guests at the home of Mrs. Ella Jenkins on Tuesday.

Thirty-seven attended the nutrition meeting held all day Thursday at the home of Mrs. John Ewing. A "Dinner" demonstration was the main feature of the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stewart and daughters, Margaret and Adele attended the funeral of Mrs. Ed Hays at Imperial, Pa on Wednesday.

The regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held at the home of Mrs. George Megrail, Wednesday. It was an all day meeting with a cover dish dinner at noon. The social hours were spent knotting comforts. At the business session reports were given of the state convention at Youngstown by Mrs. Lydia Brantingham and Mrs. George Migard.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Steer left Thursday for Harrisville. After a few days there, they expect to visit their daughter, Mrs. Oliver Bailey at Coleman and then return via Barnesville.

A farewell party was held Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Satterthwaite. About 75 of their friends and neighbors were present. The evening was spent with games and music. Lunch was served. Mr. and Mrs. Satterthwaite and family expect to leave about December 1 for Westchester, Pa., near Philadelphia, where they will make their home.

Mrs. Mary Whitacre and Mrs. Ida Stratton were among those from Winona who attended the funeral of Mrs. Murray, which was held in Salem, Wednesday.

Ten men spent Thursday repairing the basement wall of the Gurney Friends church.

FACE A SIGHT
SKIN NOW CLEAR
Praises Resinol

"My face was a sight from an eruption which appeared mostly on my nose and chin in the form of blind boils. I doctored it and used various things people suggested but nothing seemed to do any good. Finally I tried Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment and by regular use I cleared my face. I have told many people about them, and would like to be able to convince everyone that Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment are wonderful." (Signed) N. M. Meakin, Norfolk, Va.

Don't continue to be embarrassed by a rough blotchy skin when the Resinol treatment quickly heals most skin disorders. Sold by your druggist. Sample free. Write Resinol, Dept. 33, Baltimore, Maryland.
